Ministry through Faith,
Vision, and Action

From Pastor Dean's Desk

No Man Is an Island!

A song written by a group called Tenth Avenue North called "No Man Is an Island" has these words:

Through trouble, rain, or fire
Let's reach out to something higher
Ain't no life outside each other
We are not alone
Through trouble, rain, or fire
Let's reach out to something higher
Eyes open to one another
We are not alone

Many times we try to live in isolation. The isolation many times is self-made and the chains of this isolation seem so hard to break. The essential message to each one of us is to know that God never intended us to live in isolation. His desire is for each of us to seek Him and have community and communion with Him as well as our brothers and sisters in Christ.

How are we living in community? Do we seek to enjoy having fellowship with the God of the universe? Do we seek harmony and peace with others and share in the joy, the trouble, the rain and the fire? May we seek something higher! May we "know" we are not alone. Our burdens were not meant to be carried on our own backs!

"The Story Continues"

Starting September 14, we will continue messages on "The Story". We will continue with Chapter 23 on the early years of the ministry of Jesus.

Pastor Lengel's Report

Greetings to the Myerstown Church of the Brethren! In the last month I have participated in the following: visited in homes, hospitals, and nursing homes, led Wednesday evening Bible studies in our home, preached Sunday mornings, had one anointing, met with local Brethren ministers, and attended the Annual Church Conference in Columbus, OH. Annual Conference was a great time of inspiration from the speakers and the messages this year were excellent and very positive. On the home front I am continually amazed at the effort and work that is put on in this Church by the many volunteers. However, the work can get burdensome so I continually encourage others to join God's work to bring honor and glory to His name.

Unfinished Business

None

New Business

It was discussed that the new keys be distributed to the different positions in the church and members as needed. The church secretary will keep the keys and will maintain a list of all keyholders. The distribution will be decided by the Property and Trustee Commission.

Interests & Concerns

Church Board would like to thank the following for all their work for the church:

George and Dottie Nagle
Charlie Krall
Duey and Gerry Peiffer
