Ministry through Faith,
Vision, and Action

From Pastor Dean's Desk

Live As Courageous Disciples!

The Church of the Brethren Annual Conference is approaching and the theme this year is to live as courageous disciples. In the Book of Philippians we see where Paul is praising the Church for the great things that are happening in the fellowship of believers. These things just did not happen by accident. These words were written to mature believers that were followers of Jesus.

In Philippians 1: 20, 21 we read these words: "I eagerly expect and hope that I will in no way be ashamed, but will have sufficient courage so that now as always Christ will be exalted in my body, whether by life or by death. For to me, to live is Christ and to die is gain." As a believer we try to lead a life after the teachings of Jesus but many times we do fall short. Paul challenges us to live for Christ and not to be ashamed for what we believe. I pray that each one of us pray that we can live as Christ would want us to live with courage and conviction and not to be swayed by peer pressure and by the world. I will conclude this writing with the words of Paul from Philippians 1: 27: "Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in the one Spirit, striving together as one for the faith of the gospel."

Whatever happens, conduct yourselves in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ. Then, whether I come and see you or only hear about you in my absence, I will know that you stand firm in the one Spirit, striving together as one for the faith of the gospel without being frightened in any way by those who oppose you. This is a sign to them that they will be destroyed, but that you will be saved—and that by God.

-Philippians 1: 27, 28

Annual Conference

Mission Statement

Church of the Brethren Annual Conference exists to unite, strengthen and equip the Church of the Brethren to follow Jesus.

Vision Statement

Annual Conferences must be special times in the life of the Church of the Brethren. We envision Annual Conferences . . .

- that bring or revive commitment to Jesus;
- that glorify God in excellent worship, work and fellowship;
- that facilitate the business of the church through business sessions, study committees, agency reports, and disposition of queries;
- that are open and welcoming, and bring together Brethren from all cultures and points of view to proclaim Jesus as Lord;
- where we humbly celebrate our oneness in the Body as well as our unique place and ministry in the Body;
- that reach out to the local Conference community with the Good News through word and deed;
- that have dynamic preaching and quality leadership development;
- that have open and compassionate dialogue;
- that are a catalyst for personal and corporate change, and Kingdom momentum;
- that make people enthusiastic about witness and service;
- that value substance and depth of faith over politics;
- that encourage one another and build the community;
- that call, nurture and thank denominational leadership;
- that provide memorable, safe and joyful experiences for the whole family;
- that involve and challenge all of our congregations in the New Testament model;
- that maximize technology for the glory of God;
- that value the past while looking forward;
- where we have enough quality time, well spent.

Core Values

We believe that Jesus is the head of the Church. As part of the larger Body of Jesus Christ, the Church of the Brethren has a unique ministry to the world. Therefore, Annual Conference, the Church of the Brethren assembled, is committed to:

- The Lordship of Jesus Christ
Our ministry centers on the Godhead, focused in Jesus. All that we do is because Jesus Christ is Lord. We focus upon Jesus. We find discernment and truth in Jesus. Scriptural basis can be found in Mark 9:7, Ephesians 1:22-23, Colossians 1:15-20 and Hebrews 12:2-3.
- Worship
As a community of faith, worship is the primary means of expressing our love for God in Jesus Christ. We worship because God is. We believe we are to love the Lord our God with every fiber of our being. Annual Conference values worship and will provide rich and full opportunities to do so every time we gather. Biblical instruction to do so comes from Mark 12:28-31, John 4:21-24 and Revelation 4:9-11.
- Unity
As we worship together under the lordship of Jesus Christ, true unity can be found. All that could possibly separate us is laid aside, in order that we might be one. Unity comes through our expression of love for Jesus Christ and our devotion to him, as clearly seen in John 17:22-23 and Ephesians 4:1-13.
- The New Testament as our rule of faith and practice
Though all of the Bible is God's inspired word, we believe that the New Testament fully reveals God's will in Jesus Christ -- through His ministry, death, resurrection and ascension into the heavenly places. The New Testament confirmation of this is found in 2 Timothy 3:16-17 and Hebrews 8:7-13.
- Relationships
Unity is found not only in worship of God but through building loving relationships with one another, despite any differences we may have. We are called to love and respect each other. This happens as we look to the relational model Jesus gave us, take the time to know each other, worship and pray together, and extend God's grace and love, as revealed in John 15:17 and Romans 12:8-13.
- Identity
It is important to remember who we are in Jesus Christ and the unique calling we have as Brethren in this world. We have a significant ministry and message, part of the larger Body of Jesus Christ, that is affirmed and renewed each time we assemble for our annual meeting, corporately and individually. These special times remind us why we exist. Biblical references include Romans 12:3-8 and I Corinthians 12:12-13.
- A variety of faith experiences
A full spectrum of worship, prayer, business, learning, discerning and fellowshiping is valued and experienced, by all age groups within the church. Abundant life in Jesus Christ is developed through this variety, as God has the opportunity to shine the light upon us in many ways, in different settings. Quality and excellence is valued in all of these varied experiences. It is a time and place for the whole family to have fun, grow together and be strengthened in faith. See scriptural examples in Acts 16:31-34 and Romans 14:1-8.
