Scriptural Message

In those days Caesar Augustus issued a decree that a census should be taken of the entire Roman world. (This was the first census that took place while[a] Quirinius was governor of Syria.) And everyone went to their own town to register.

So Joseph also went up from the town of Nazareth in Galilee to Judea, to Bethlehem the town of David, because he belonged to the house and line of David. He went there to register with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him and was expecting a child. While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her firstborn, a son. She wrapped him in cloths and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest room available for them. And there were shepherds living out in the fields nearby, keeping watch over their flocks at night. An angel of the Lord appeared to them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified. But the angel said to them, "Do not be afraid. I bring you good news that will cause great joy for all the people. Today in the town of David a Savior has been born to you; he is the Messiah, the Lord. This will be a sign to you: You will find a baby wrapped in cloths and lying in a manger."

December 2023

Ministry through Faith, Vision, and Action

Greetings from Pastor Chris

December is A wonderful time of year. For many of us we start decorating for Christmas and Christmas shopping. For a lot of you that are organized your Christmas shopping is done already. December can be a very busy time of year, with preparing for a party baking cookies decorating the house and many other things. Through all the hustle and bustle of this time of year for a lot of us we tend to forget what this season is all about. Starting on December 3rd we start the Advent season. The word Advent is from Latin meaning arrival. Advent Season is a very special time of the year that sometimes gets lost with all the lights, cookies, and festivities. So, we ask the question what is so important and why do we celebrate advent? The Advent season is all about reflecting on how we can prepare our hearts and remember the birth of Jesus Christ. Luke 2:6-7

"While they were there, the time came for the baby to be born, and she gave birth to her first born, a son. She wrapped him in clothes and placed him in a manger, because there was no guest rooms available for them." This Advent season I want us not only to be preparing our hearts for the Christmas season and thinking about Jesus's first coming, but also remember Jesus's promise to us, that he is coming back again. John 14:2-3 "My father's house has many rooms, if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am." God gave his people a promise of a Messiah and a Savior. This Christmas season we celebrate the birth of our Messiah, but we need to prepare our hearts and be ready for his return.

Burundi church celebrates Brethren heritage

On Aug. 9-13 the young Church of the Brethren denomination in Burundi celebrated the 315th anniversary of the Brethren movement, claiming its part in the heritage that began with baptisms in the Eder River in Schwarzenau, Germany, in 1708.

A gathering of more than 1,000 people was held in a schoolyard a few blocks from the Gihosha church in Bujumbura. Preaching, teaching, singing, and other activities took place over the five-day crusade.

Church of the Brethren representatives from the Democratic Republic of Congo (DRC), Kenya, Rwanda, Tanzania, and Uganda, as well as representatives from the church in the United States, participated or provided leadership. Choirs from Burundi, Rwanda, and the DRC also participated.

Over a meal of fish from Lake Tanganyika, Burundian church leaders met to discuss the joys and challenges in their congregations. Although the churches of Africa struggle with conflicts, natural disasters, and lack of resources, they also are blessed with faithfulness, growth, and various projects that help to improve the lives of people in their communities.

Asked about the significance of the celebration, secretary Jean-Marie Bizimana said, "We want people to know how strong the church is and that it has a long history." Athanasios Ntirandekora, deacon of Bujumbura Church of the Brethren, added that the crusade "got the blessing from God. We saw friends from other countries and the hand of God. It was hard work, but God helped us." He noted that "many came to know God and that Jesus is king." According to Cedric Niyonsaba, another deacon of the Bujumbura congregation, the best part was the "celebration of 315 years.

Our members were reminded to continue the work of Jesus."

Burundian Brethren shared what they like about the Church of the Brethren:

"We focus on the Bible as the word of God. We can each take our understandings and put it together," said Bizimana.

Ntirandekora noted that the Church of the Brethren is a peace church and that Brethren read the Bible and practice what it says. "The church has a good vision," he said. "People love their neighbor, and the leadership love the members. People like it because it teaches love and peace."

Niyonsaba pointed out that the Church of the Brethren is a New Testament church. "We baptize as Jesus was baptized. The New Testament came from Jesus and we continue his work. It is different from other churches because no one is forbidden to continue the work of Jesus. Everyone is invited to do the work of Jesus." —Eric Miller

Children's Disaster Services

CDS sends second team to Hawaii

In mid-September, Children's Disaster Services sent a second team to Hawaii in partnership with the Red Cross. The volunteers worked with children and families affected by the fires on the island of Maui, with the CDS childcare center located at a hotel in Lahaina. From information provided by the National Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster (NVOAD), there were some 4,800 residents in non-congregate shelters at the time.

CDS also responded to a home explosion and a tornado in August.

CDS volunteers provided childcare at a Multi-Agency Resource Center (MARC) in Pittsburgh, Pa., following a home explosion in nearby Plum. Six people died, several others were injured, and neighboring homes caught fire in the Aug. 13 explosion. A team of four volunteers served on Aug. 24.

Two CDS volunteers responded in a MARC in Baring, Mo., where an EF2 tornado touched down on Aug. 4. In a town of just 125 residents, 14 people needed to be rescued from their homes. The CDS volunteers served on Aug. 9.

Personnel

Austin Bancroft and Jamie McBride have been hired as co-directors of Camp Brethren Heights in Rodney, Mich. McBride, who holds degrees from Manchester University and Goshen College in Indiana, and certificates from Bethany Seminary, will direct summer programs and work on public relations. Bancroft will continue as facilities manager and will take on responsibilities with rental groups and local marketing.

Jen Houser resigned Sept. 20 after two years as director of the Brethren Historical Library and Archives at the General Offices in Elgin, Ill. Her work included providing consistent leadership, processing archival materials, raising the archives' social media presence, and overseeing the work of an intern.

Georgia Markey began Oct. 1 as interim executive minister for Southern Pennsylvania District, on a half-time basis for at least six months. She is an ordained minister who has worked as a pastor and was acting district executive from 2011 to 2013. She also previously served as associate district executive and as district administrative assistant.

Christy Crouse has been named the Church of the Brethren representative on the board/steering committee of Community Peacemaker Teams (CPT). Crouse is a legal researcher for the International Area of the Center of Study on Law, Justice, and Society (Dejusticia) in Bogotá, Colombia. She is a US attorney with a J.D. degree from the University of Chicago Law School.

Zakariya Musa/EYN Media

The EYN Women Development Centre in Kwarhi, Nigeria, has graduated 48 students. The students were trained in skills acquisition, with leadership from principal Ruth Ishaya. On Aug. 18, the celebrants, parents or guardians, and well-wishers converged at the EYN Headquarters for the occasion. Suzan Mark Zira, director of the EYN Women's Fellowship (ZME), thanked Mission 21, who sponsored the materials for the program, and thanked all the ZME groups in various church districts for their cooperation towards running the center, meant to empower the less privileged girls with an emphasis on orphans. The graduates were presented with items to help them start earning their livelihoods, including knitting machines, sewing machines, cake pans, and other kits.

DID YOU KNOW? MEN'S CONFERENCE

All men 6th grade and up are welcome to this event at 201 Crescent Ave, Ephrata, PA, 17522 (enter through Community Room doors from the back parking lot). The day will include Mike Franzese sessions, worship, food, and giveaways.

MORE ABOUT MICHAEL FRANZESE: Michael Franzese grew up as the son of the notorious Underboss of New York's violent and feared Colombo crime family. At his most affluent, Michael was generating an estimated $5 to $8 million per week from legal and illegal businesses and in 1986, was named one of the biggest money earners the mob had seen since Al Capone, by Vanity Fair. At the age of 35, Fortune Magazine listed him as number 18 on its list of the "Fifty Most Wealthy and Powerful Mafia Bosses," just five behind John Gotti. All that was to change when Michael met a beautiful dancer from California named Camille Garcia whose beauty and faith would turn his world upside down, causing Michael to do the unthinkable – walk away from the mob. Nobody of his rank had ever just walked away – and lived. Until now.

Ephrata Church of the Brethren will be hosting a Men's Conference on Saturday, January 20, 2024 from 8:00 am - 3:00 pm featuring former mafia boss, Michael Franzese, as the guest speaker. This former "Prince of the Mafia" is now a man on a mission determined to use the compelling experiences of his former life for the benefit of others seeking redemption and forgiveness and continues to bring record attendance to events all over the country. Michael's compelling story of fame, prestige, love and fear has been featured throughout the country on high profile media of most major news networks and programs as well as the History Channel and National Geographic.

Early registration price is $99. After December 19, the cost will increase to $115. For groups of four or more, contact ryan@ecob.church or 717-201-0211 for group discounts. Registration is available now at this link: <https://thehub.elvanto.net/form/6e57700e-061c-4b6e-99b7-6e8583c2cc7f>
