January 2024

Ministry through Faith, Vision, and Action

Greetings from Pastor Chris

With 2023 ending and 2024 beginning many of us will be starting our New Year's resolutions. We also might be looking to better ourselves mentally, physically, and spiritually. One thing we all might be thinking is what does God have in store for us in 2024. In Jeremiah 29:11-14 the Lord said "for I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Then you will call on me and come and pray to me, and I will listen to you. You will seek me and find me when you seek me with all your heart. I will be found by you, declares the Lord." A lot of times in the beginning of a new year, we wonder what our purpose is, and or do we have a purpose. Yes, we all have a purpose in life. In verse 11 God states I know the plans I have for you. Are we calling on Him, and trusting in Him? Are we seeking God this year? We need to be getting into His word, and seeking Him for His guidance for our lives, and the life of His church. This year I challenge every one of us to read the Bible in one year. You will see in the newsletter this month there is, "read your Bible in a year guide". All of our lives get very busy with things to do. This reading is set up to help us designate a time each day to be able to get into His word. Here are five ways to effectively read your Bible.

1. Pray before you start reading each day.
2. Use a study Bible.
3. Read a whole chapter at a time.
4. Get on a plan.
5. Use a Bible app or listen to it audibly.

My prayer for us here at Myerstown COB is that we will grow spiritually and closer to God, that He may show us His will and guide us through this upcoming year.

ANE District Conference 2024
October 11 & 12
Moderator, Kathy Brode

This past year we were encouraged by Brother Moderator Dave Nichols to seek unity in spirit, like-mindedness, and to seek to be a blessing to others, which is our calling as believers. In a time of great challenges within our denomination, this is a very worthy effort. For this coming year, I would ask that we now turn our focus outward, remembering that our God is a sending God, and we are charged with taking his message of peace to a troubled world.

In the 5th chapter of 2 Corinthians, the apostle Paul reminds us that as we make our peace with God, the Holy Spirit gives us new life. We are recreated, not merely rehabilitated or reeducated. Under the guidance of the Lord, we begin a new life. He makes peace with us, reconciling us to himself by erasing our sins and making us right with him. Having been reconciled to him, we are then entrusted with the precious task of encouraging others to make their peace with God. We become Christ's ambassadors in the world. The job of an ambassador is to serve as an official representative of one country to another. We, as ambassadors of Christ, are sent out into the world with his message of peace and reconciliation—a daunting task, for sure, but also a privilege!

Therefore, the Program and Arrangements Committee's chosen theme for this 2024 District Conference is "Christ's Ambassadors: Pursuing the Path of Reconciliation." Let us be about this task, brothers and sisters, with all the power and grace that is ours through Christ Jesus our Lord.

A short word about District Conference logistics: We are returning to a location at Elizabethtown College. Because of the enthusiastic response from last year's delegates, we will continue with the new practice of being seated around tables to facilitate dialogue. I will share further details in upcoming issues of the newsletter.

CHRIST'S AMBASSADORS

pursuing the path of
RECONCILIATION

Created by Karen Breidenstine-Howe, Spring Creek COB

2 CORINTHIANS 5:17-21

17 So if anyone is in Christ, there is a new creation: everything old has passed away; see, everything has become new!

18 All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 that is, in Christ God was reconciling the world to himself, not counting their trespasses against them, and entrusting the message of reconciliation to us.

20 So we are ambassadors for Christ, since God is making his appeal through us; we entreat you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

21 For our sake he made him to be sin who knew no sin, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

ANE District Conference Moderator 2024

Kathy Brode, Spring Creek Church of the Brethren

Kathy works as a freelance editor and has recently retired from private English tutoring. For most of her career (24 years), she worked as a Professional Writing Tutor at Penn State Harrisburg, tutoring a diverse undergraduate and graduate population with a wide range of writing proficiency levels, including non-native English speakers. She presented workshops to support writing efforts in all majors using instructional materials she designed, specializing in research documentation formats. She also trained, supervised, and mentored both professional and student writing tutors.

She has been a member of Spring Creek for 34 years. She recently completed her sixth year as Church Moderator and Vice Chair of Church Board. This past year she chaired the 175th Anniversary Committee. She teaches an evening women's Bible study group, volunteers as a guest teacher in adult and children's Sunday school, and serves as Worship Leader Coordinator. In the past she has served as a deacon and Adult Sunday School Coordinator. She is also a past board member of Love INC of Greater Hershey.

Kathy envisions a District ministry dedicated to helping us all work together to build the Kingdom of God, guided in this effort by the Holy Spirit and the unchanging Word of God. She believes we need to find ways to help our churches be relevant to a hurting world very much in need of hope and love while still respecting and cherishing our heritage and traditions. She thinks we should be a community of believers rejoicing in our shared commitment to Jesus Christ while allowing differences of perspective on a variety of issues. She hopes we will encourage dialogue that is gracious and behavior that reflects forbearance and genuine love. Above all, she believes we should be guided by the principle of doing all to the glory of God and our neighbor's good.

Decision to close Material Resources program, Israel and Palestine violence top board agenda decision to close Material Resources—a Church of the Brethren program that collects, processes, warehouses, and ships relief aid—and a statement on “Seeking Peace in Israel and Palestine” topped the agenda of the Mission and Ministry Board at its fall meeting Oct. 20-22.

This was the first meeting presided over by Colin Scott, who began as chair in July, assisted by chair-elect Kathy Mack and general secretary David Steele.

Material Resources: The program of Material Resources, based at the Brethren Service Center in New Windsor, Md., will wind down over a period of up to 30 months. Employees who stay through the end of the program will receive severance packages. Loretta Wolf, who has been director of Material Resources for almost 40 years, since 1984, is among the 9 full- and part-time employees affected.

Not affected by the decision are the other ministries based at the Brethren Service Center including Brethren Disaster Ministries, Children's Disaster Services, and the warehousing operation of SERRV.

The decision was not entered into lightly, said Scott when he announced the consensus decision reached during closed session. He named that the decision was difficult and there was prayerful discernment. He shared the board's appreciation for staff who have worked at the program, and of the congregations that have contributed many resources toward this ministry over the years.

A legacy program of the Church of the Brethren, Material Resources has a long and significant history dating back to World War II. Collections of relief clothing that church members and congregations began in 1939 planted the seed for the program. In 1944 a processing center for relief goods was established in New Windsor, under the auspices of the Brethren Service Committee.

Israel and Palestine: The board statement cited scripture as it expressed grief and compassion for all who have lost loved ones in the violence in Israel and Palestine that began with the Hamas attacks of Oct. 7. “While the Church of the Brethren has consistently opposed war, we are particularly concerned about the targeting of civilians,” the statement said, in part. “We feel anguish for the Israeli people and those of Jewish heritage around the world. . . . We feel anguish for Palestinians and people of Arab descent. . . . We call on Church of the Brethren members to join in prayer for all the Israelis and Palestinians who are affected by this terrible situation, and for the Jewish and Palestinian peoples worldwide.” The statement called for a ceasefire, release of all hostages, and increased humanitarian measures for Gaza, among other actions.

2024 budget: The board approved a total budget for denominational ministries of $8,720,960 of income and $8,789,640 of expense, representing an anticipated net expense of $68,680. The decision included a Core Ministries budget of $5,507,000 of income and $5,546,120 of expense, representing an anticipated net expense of $39,120, which will be covered by the Core Ministries net asset balance. The board heard that a financial “pinch point” is coming soon, and the executive committee will begin processing how to prioritize denominational ministries.

Pastoral Housing Fund: The board approved changes recommended by the Pastoral Compensation and Benefits Advisory Committee, to be proposed to the 2024 Annual Conference. The fund helps pastors living in parsonages to purchase their own homes once they leave the parsonage, with financial contributions from their congregation. The changes create a way for contributions to be held in the Eder Retirement Plan instead of mutual funds, to alleviate the tax burden for the pastors who participate.

Global Church of the Brethren Communion Bylaws: The bylaws were affirmed by the board and are expected to be finalized by the communion in coming months. The communion is an organization of the national Church of the Brethren denominations around the world.

Intercultural listening: In a session held via Zoom at the request of a group of Church of the Brethren ministers, the board listened to questions and concerns from nine people from Hispanic, Latin American, Haitian American, and African American communities. Also speaking was Bob Kettering, a white retired minister in Atlantic Northeast District.

Several told of painful experiences of racism in church settings. Their concerns included a list of questions and topics including print resources and ministerial training in Spanish and Kreyol, accuracy of Spanish interpretation at Annual Conference, delay in hiring intercultural ministries staff, lack of intentional engagement with the intercultural community by denominational leaders, and fears that the Church of the Brethren is becoming “open and affirming”—which they characterized as antithetical to Hispanic and Haitian cultures.

The MMB agenda also included worship and prayer, reports, small group sharing by board and staff, training on Kingian Nonviolence, and a chance to greet the Young Adult Steering Committee.

Addressed to Archbishop Vicken Aykazian on behalf of the Armenian community worldwide, the letter also gave particular attention to Armenian members and attenders in the Church of the Brethren. It said, in part: “Please know that the Church of the Brethren continues to stand with the Armenian people now as we have for more than 100 years since 1917, when our church first began providing aid to survivors and refugees of the Armenian Genocide.”

CDS critical response team works in Lewiston

On Oct. 28, Children’s Disaster Services deployed a team of five Critical Response Childcare volunteers to Lewiston, Maine, in partnership with the Red Cross. This deployment was made in response to the mass shootings at two locations in Lewiston in which 18 people were killed and 13 others were injured. The critical response teams are certified CDS volunteers who have received additional specialized training for mass casualty events.

Personnel

José Calleja Otero has resigned as executive minister for Puerto Rico District. He has been the district’s first executive since July 12, 2015, when Puerto Rico became the Church of the Brethren’s 24th district. Among previous roles, he was team pastor at the congregation in Morovis.

Shannon Kahler is retiring from Inspiration Hills, a camp and retreat center in Northern Ohio District. Andrew Kauffman has been appointed interim executive director, beginning Dec. 1. He has worked at Camp Mack in Indiana for multiple years, and also worked in the school system in Arizona.

Allison Snyder began Oct. 10 as interim manager of the Brethren Historical Library and Archives in Elgin, Ill., where she previously served two years as archival intern.

Kay Weaver retired Oct. 15 as director of stewardship for Atlantic Northeast District. She had served in the position since 2003.

2024 Bible Reading Plan

FOUNDATIONS F260 Reading Plan

The Foundations F260 reading plan is a 260-day reading plan that guides you through the 66 miraculous books of the Bible in one year, while still having the flexibility of reading 5 days per week.

How Does It Work?

The plan is built on reading a chapter a day for five days each week, with an allowance for weekends off. The two off days are built in so that you can catch up on days when you're unable to read.

To get more out of your reading, we encourage you to keep a H.E.A.R. Journal. A sample H.E.A.R. Journal entry is on the last page of this booklet.

Memorizing the Word

There are a number of Scripture memorization plans and tools you can find that are effective. An easy way to get started is by using a pack of index cards and a committed desire to memorize God's Word. Simply, write the reference of the verse on one side of the card and the text of the verse on the other. Then, carry your pack of Scripture cards with you.

Whenever you have a few minutes throughout the day, pull out your pack of Scripture cards and review them. Read the reference first, followed by the verse. Continue to recite the verses until you get a feel for the flow of the passage. When you are comfortable with the text, look only at the reference side of the card in order to test your recall.

Title: The Secret of Contentment

H (Highlight) - "I am able to do all things through Him who strengthens me."
(Phil. 4:13)

E (Explain) - Paul was telling the church at Philippi that he had discovered the secret of contentment. No matter the situation in Paul's life, he realized that Christ was all he needed, and Christ was the One who strengthened him to persevere through difficult times.

A (Apply) - In my life I will experience many ups and downs. My contentment isn't found in circumstances. Rather, it's based on my relationship with Jesus Christ. Only Jesus gives me the strength I need to be content in every circumstance in life.

R (Respond) - Lord Jesus, please help me as I strive to be content in You. Through Your strength I can make it through any situation I face.
