Scriptural Message

"Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres."
1 Corinthians 13:4-7

"My son, keep your father's command and do not forsake your mother's teaching. Bind them always on your heart; fasten them around your neck. When you walk, they will guide you; when you sleep, they will watch over you; when you awake, they will speak to you."

MAY 2024

Ministry through Faith, Vision, and Action

Greetings from Pastor Chris

May is my favorite month of the year. May is my birthday month, and my two youngest children's birthdays are in May also. May is typically warmer, but we all know living in Pennsylvania we could have that last snowstorm! We all have a lot to look forward to in the month of May, some of us are working out in our gardens, or flower beds or even the start of spring turkey season, but there is a lot to look forward to in this month. On May 12th we are celebrate Mother's Day. I would like to thank my mom for all she has done for me, and guiding me in my life. I would also like to thank all the mothers out there for all that they do for every one of us, and have done! Moms have one of the hardest jobs. It is thankless and it never ends. Isaiah 49:15 says "can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb?" as a mom you are always thinking, and worried about your children. Proverbs 31 King Lemuel was talking about his mother. Verse 2 starts off with saying what are you doing, my son? I'm sure that these are words that came out of every one of you mom's mouth "what are you doing?!" Proverbs 31: 26-29 "she opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children raise up and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praises her. Many women have done excellently but you surpass them all." You do not have to be a biological mother, to show a mother's love. What type of legacy are you leaving to the next generation? Times as a mother, or a mother figure are tough, but I encourage you to continue praying and showing Jesus's love because God is faithful.

General secretary issues pastoral statement for Haiti

Church of the Brethren general secretary David Steele issued a pastoral statement for Haiti in early March, at a time when the island nation was under a state of emergency and experiencing widespread violence. The statement was shared in three languages: English, Haitian Kreyol, and French.

Directed to l'Eglise des Freres d'Haiti (the Church of the Brethren in Haiti), Haitian Church of the Brethren congregations in the US, extended family, and the Haitian diaspora community, the statement said, in part, "Please receive with this letter the care and love of the whole of the Church of the Brethren. Our denomination continues to stand with you and the Haitian people now as we have during previous times of trial and trouble, through storms and earthquakes, economic and political turmoil."

DR church to aid displaced Haitians

Brethren Disaster Ministries and Iglesia de los Hermanos (the Church of the Brethren) in the Dominican Republic (DR) are working together on an effort to aid displaced Haitians.

A grant of $5,000 from the Emergency Disaster Fund is providing emergency food to Haitian citizens fleeing across the border to the Dominican Republic and away from the violence in Haiti. Haiti and the DR share the same Caribbean island.

The DR church reports that thousands of Haitians have been fleeing into the DR due to the violence, killing of family members, lack of food, and homes being taken by the gangs in Haiti. In spite of a DR government position against the displaced Haitians, the church is providing some humanitarian aid.

BFIA grants issued to churches, camp

Brethren Faith in Action grants were given to the following local ministries:

- $5,000 to a "Brethren Building Beloved Community" project of congregations in Indiana and Ohio.

- $5,000 to a coffeehouse outreach at GraceWay International Community Church in the Baltimore area.
- $5,000 to a gun buy back program supported by Spirit of Peace Church of the Brethren, East Lansing, Mich.
- $5,000 to Myerstown (Pa.) Church of the Brethren's upgrade of technology for community outreach.

■ $5,000 to the Blessing Box project at Williamson Road Church of the Brethren, Roanoke, Va.

■ $5,000 to multiple community outreach projects of Circle of Peace Church of the Brethren, Peoria, Ariz.

■ $4,304.82 to community outreach projects of Glendale (Calif.) Church of the Brethren.

■ $2,500 to a community meal at Camp Pine Lake in Iowa.

■ $1,600.80 to a family movie night program at Lanark (Ill.) Church of the Brethren.

■ $1,000 to a ministry for children and families at Roaring Spring (Pa.) Church of the Brethren.

■ $480.24 to Day of Caring projects of Eel River Community Church of the Brethren, Silver Lake, Ind.

Office of Ministry director Nancy Sollenberger Heishman led orientation for nine trainers who will lead required ethics training for ministers to renew their credentials. In addition to the current curriculum written by Jim Benedict, a new set of addendum materials will be introduced on clergy ethics and artificial intelligence, guidelines for the use of social media, and a multidimensional approach to intercultural ethics. The trainers (from left): Heishman; Dave Kerkove, pastor of South Waterloo (Iowa) Church of the Brethren; Joe Detrick, interim executive for Mid-Atlantic District; Gail Erisman Valeta, pastor of Prince of Peace Church of the Brethren, Denver, Colo.; Nathan Hollenberg, pastor of Linville Creek Church of the Brethren, Broadway, Va.; Illexene Alphonse, pastor of Miami (Fla.) Haitian Church of the Brethren; Cathy Huffman, director of Ministry Formation for Virilina District; Janet Ober Lambert, director of the Brethren Academy for Ministerial Leadership; Del Keeney, retired pastor from Mechanicsburg (Pa.) Church of the Brethren; and Ramón Torres, retired pastor of Puerta del Cielo Church of the Brethren, Reading, Pa.

Shine Everywhere is introduced

The Shine curriculum of Brethren Press and MennoMedia is introducing a new initiative called Shine Everywhere, to provide new avenues of communication between those who create Shine curriculum and the congregations and families who use it.

"Shine Everywhere allows us to give focused time and attention to discovering and practicing the 'everywhere' habits that grow faith in children," said project facilitator Shana Peachey Boshart. "We look forward to deepening our relationships with congregations and families, listening for what is working to grow faith, and providing helpful resources for churches, families, and children."

A grant of $1.25 million from Lilly Endowment Inc. supports development of Shine Everywhere. The grant is part of Lilly Endowment's Christian Parenting and Caregiving Initiative, which aims to help parents and caregivers share their faith and values with their children.

—JOHN 3:16

MISSION STATEMENT: We align with God to proclaim the gospel of Jesus Christ and champion the sacredness of human life through pregnancy services, strategic partnerships, and equipping resources.

Human life begins with God. He creates people for His pleasure and glory.
He is the Father and longs for the people He has made to be part of His family.
He knew long ago that our sin would separate us from Him.
He gave His Son Jesus, so that everyone who believes in Him will have eternal life.
He will one day dwell among His people and be with us forever.

God's heart is for people to have life through Jesus! He is working through Align to bring that gospel truth into the lives of families and babies locally, statewide, nationally and around the world.
