Scriptural Message

Train up a child in the way he should go:
and when he is old, he will not depart from it.
Proverbs 22:6

Her children rise up and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:
“Many women have done excellently, but you surpass them all.”

Proverbs 31:28-29

An excellent wife who can find? She is far more precious than jewels. The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he will have no lack of gain. She does him good, and not harm, all the days of her life.

Proverbs 31:10-12

May 2025

Ministry through Faith, Vision, and Action

Greetings from Pastor Chris

May is my favorite month of the year. May is my birthday month, and my two youngest children's birthdays are in May also. May is typically warmer, but we all know living in Pennsylvania we could have that last snowstorm! We all have a lot to look forward to in the month of May. Some of us are working out in our gardens, or flower beds or even the start of spring turkey season, but there is a lot to look forward to in this month. On May 11th we will celebrate Mother's Day. I would like to thank my mom for all she has done for me, and guiding me in my life. I would also like to thank all the mothers out there for all that they do for every one of us, and have done! Moms have one of the hardest jobs. It is thankless and it never ends. Isaiah 49:15 says “can a woman forget her nursing child, that she should have no compassion on the son of her womb?” As a mom you are always thinking and worrying about your children. Proverbs 31 King Lemuel was talking about his mother. Verse 2 starts off with saying what are you doing, my son? I'm sure that is a word that came out of every one of you mom's mouth what are you doing?!

Proverbs 31: 26-29 “she opens her mouth with wisdom, and the teaching of kindness is on her tongue. She looks well to the ways of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness. Her children raise up and call her blessed, her husband also, and he praises her. Many women have done excellently but you surpass them all.” You do not have to be a biological mother, to show a mother's love. What type of legacy are you leaving to the next generation? Times as a mother, or a mother figure are tough, but I encourage you to continue praying and showing Jesus's love because God is faithful. The verse for the month of May, is Romans 15:13 “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.”

We are looking into getting speakers to fill the pulpit when Pastor Chris is at Annual Conference for July 6th and possibly June 29th. It didn't suit Greg Golden of Vine Ministry for July 6th as we had planned.

The Easter Egg Hunt went well. The Youth and Junior Youth did a great job filling and hiding the eggs. We had 10 children and 10 youth.

The Spaghetti Dinner was a huge success. We served just under 100 people. The profit from the meal was $891.88 and the quilt sold twice for a total of $710.00. So the total profit for the day was $1,601.88.

I got a lead on a place to have a weekend retreat this fall for the youth. More info when I get it.

National Jr. High Conference at Juniata College is June 20-22. I have 2 youth committed to go. We are waiting for one more. The Jr. Youth will be going bowling May 18th. We are researching bowling alley's.

Church of the Brethren joins lawsuit to protect religious freedoms

The Church of the Brethren was one of two dozen Christian and Jewish religious groups who are plaintiffs in a lawsuit filed in early February by the Institute for Constitutional Advocacy and Protection (ICAP) at Georgetown Law.

The case “Mennonite Church USA et al. v. United States Department of Homeland Security et al” responds to the federal government’s rescinding of the Department of Homeland Security “sensitive locations” policy that had restricted Immigration and Customs Enforcement from conducting immigration raids, arrests, and other enforcement at churches and other houses of worship.

“We feel grave concern for those who are of migrant, immigrant, or refugee status within our congregations and in our communities who are threatened with deportation,” said Church of the Brethren general secretary David A. Steele. “The prospect that raids may bring that violent threat into our very church sanctuaries is already affecting the lives of many people in our denomination. God’s love is our greatest command, and we believe this divine love is not delineated by political borders nor limited by national origin, ethnic identity, race, skin color, or other characteristics that often divide us.”

More than 70 clergywomen from 16 districts—including ordained, licensed, and commissioned clergy—attended a Clergywomen’s Retreat offered every five years by the Ministry Office. The event held Feb. 10-13 at the San Pedro Spiritual Development Center in Winter Park, Fla., was led by Meghan Larissa Good, lead pastor of Trinity Mennonite Church in Phoenix, Ariz. Clergywomen also enjoyed small group and worship experiences with the opportunity for intercultural fellowship. Translation into English, Spanish, and Haitian Creole was available with equipment provided by Atlantic Southeast District.

Church of the Brethren signs declaration defending refugee

The Church of the Brethren signed an ecumenical declaration defending refugee as one of the Covenant Members of Church World Service. Additional organizations that signed the declaration released on Ash Wednesday, March 5, included the National Council of Churches of Christ in the USA, Mennonite Central Committee US, and Friends United Meeting, among many others.

With 45 initial signers, the declaration followed presidential executive orders that opposed longstanding US traditions of welcome and create uncertainty for the US Refugee Admissions Program.

“This is a critical moment in the history of our nation and our world,” the declaration said, in part. “Guided by our faith, we stand together against the sweeping measures that are devastating vulnerable families and jeopardizing their futures.”

The declaration cited “misinformation, cruelty, fearmongering and criminalization” targeting refugee and immigrants communities as well as government policies that “seek to decimate our nation’s long-standing commitment to welcoming and protecting those seeking safety” including efforts to “ban refugees from entering our country, revoke temporary protected status for immigrants unable to safely return home, undermine the 14th Amendment’s right to birthright citizenship, suspend foreign assistance to at-risk families around the world, erode the sanctity of places of worship, and dismantle our national capacity to assist refugees, asylum seekers and immigrants both at home and abroad.”

The declaration is open for additional signatures by individuals, congregations, and other groups at <https://cwsconnect.org/ecumenical-declaration>.
