March 2026

Ministry through
Faith, Vision, and Action

Greetings from Pastor Chris

"But seek first his kingdom and his righteousness, and all these things will be given to you as well." – Matthew 6:33

Church family,

March always feels like that in-between month, doesn't it? Winter is still hanging on, but you can start to sense spring coming. The days get a little longer, the sun shows up more often, and life begins to pick up speed again. Before long, our calendars start filling up—kids' activities, work projects, yard work, appointments, and everything else that seems to pile on this time of year.

And right in the middle of that busyness, Jesus gives us this simple but searching command:

"Seek first the kingdom of God..."

As we keep walking through the teachings of Jesus in the Gospel of Matthew, this verse hits close to home. Because if we're honest, most of us don't struggle with doing things—we struggle with putting the right things first.

We say God is first, but then the day starts, the phone buzzes, the to-do list grows, and before we know it, we've given our best time and energy to everything else. By the time we slow down, we're tired, distracted, and running on empty spiritually.

Jesus lovingly calls us back: "Seek first the kingdom."

That means His rule, His ways, and His priorities come before everything else—not just in theory, but in the normal, everyday rhythm of life.

March moves us closer to Easter. Soon we'll be remembering the cross and celebrating the resurrection. That gives us something wonderful to look forward to as a church family. There is joy ahead. There is hope ahead. There is a reminder coming that Jesus really is King.

But before we get to the celebration, this month is a great time to prepare our hearts. Not in a heavy or complicated way, but in a simple, honest way: "Lord, am I really putting Your kingdom first right now?"

Here's the challenge for all of us this month—including me:

Where has God slipped down the list?

Not out of rebellion... but just out of busyness. It happens so easily. Good things crowd out the best things. We stay active, but spiritually we can slowly drift onto autopilot.

Seeking the kingdom first doesn't mean we quit our jobs or ignore responsibilities. It means we invite Jesus to be King over all of it—our work, our homes, our conversations, our decisions, and even our worries.

It means before we panic, we pray.

Before we plan, we ask for wisdom.

Before we react, we remember who is really in control.

Something Simple to Practice in March

Let's keep it very practical this month:

- Start your day with God, even if it's just a few minutes and one verse.
- Talk about Jesus at home, not just at church.
- Pray about the small things, not just the big emergencies.
- Be present when we gather, expecting God to work in our hearts.

Nothing flashy. Just steady, faithful steps of putting the kingdom first.

I love that Jesus doesn't just give a command—He gives a promise:

"All these things will be added to you."

In plain terms, He's saying: "You take care of putting My kingdom first, and I'll take care of what you need." What a relief that is. We don't have to carry everything alone. Our King knows what we need, and He is faithful to provide.

So as March gets busy—and it will—let's not just go through the motions spiritually. Let's slow down enough to keep Jesus first. Not perfectly, but intentionally.

My prayer is that by the time we reach Easter, we'll be able to say, "Lord, we didn't just stay busy this month... we stayed close to You."

They replaced electric poles on Richland Avenue and changed our service lines. They had our electric off on January 31st for about 4 hours. Both the generators were running. The one is outside east end of building. The other one is located inside the storage room at rear of gym. We had fumes from it. I want to thank Dean Wagner and Mike Shaak from Keystone Fire Co. They came in with carbon monoxide tester. Generator is leaking. We had a big fan to remove fumes.
I had Powerton Generator in to check and there is no ventilation in the room. Generator should be moved to the outside.
We replaced the light tubes, tiles in chair room. We are going to put a motion sensor switch as they never turn the lights off.
We cleaned snow again There was too much snow on front and rear walks and we had Dean Nolt bring his 48" blower to clean walks.
I would like to thank Bill and Dale for their help to clean snow and Dean Wagner for pushing snow back to make room for more snow.

Approval to purchase a new generator was given by a motion, 2nd and aye vote.

Haitian church members in US face end of TPS

The Department of Homeland Security moved to end Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for Haitians living in the US, as of 11:59 p.m. on Feb. 3. However, a US district judge ordered a stay in a last-minute ruling on Feb. 2. It is unknown how long the stay will be in effect.

The Church of the Brethren Deportation Defense Response Team called for intercessory prayer for the approximately 200 members of the Church of the Brethren, among some 350,000 Haitians living in the US, who will be affected if TPS is ended.

Effects may include loss of employment and deportation.

TPS is a government designation allowing immigrants to legally live in the US when their home countries are unsafe because of armed conflict, environmental disasters, or other extraordinary conditions that prevent a safe return. TPS has been applied to Haitians almost continuously since 2011. Its termination was announced despite the lack of safe return to Haiti, where there is ongoing violence and a severe humanitarian crisis.
