April 2026

Ministry through Faith, Vision, and Action

Greetings from Pastor Chris

Verse of the Month – Lamentations 3:22–23 (NIV)
"Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed, for his compassions never fail. They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness."

April is one of those in-between months. One day feels like spring, the next still feels like winter. There's a lot of rain, a lot of gray skies, and sometimes it just feels a little messy.

But we all know the saying: "April showers bring May flowers." It's a simple reminder that the rain has a purpose. And the same is true in our spiritual lives.

The book of Lamentations was written in a difficult season — full of loss, uncertainty, and struggle. Yet right in the middle of that, we are reminded of something powerful: God's mercies are new every morning. Not just on the good days, but on the hard ones too.

God Uses the Rain

Romans 5:3–4 reminds us that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope.

Stay Rooted

Psalms 1:2–3 tells us that a person rooted in God's Word is like a tree planted by streams of water, yielding fruit in season — not immediately, but in God's timing.

A Challenge for April

Stay faithful in prayer. Stay consistent in God's Word. Stay connected to the church. What God is growing in you now will bloom in His time. You may not see the flowers yet—but that doesn't mean they aren't coming. God is faithful. His mercies are new every morning. So don't give up in April. May is coming.

IAF statement calls on 'Spirit of Power and Love'

The Inter-Agency Forum meeting in Florida on Jan. 27 issued the statement "A Spirit of Power and Love" on immigration enforcement and political violence and their effects on church members. The IAF includes the Annual Conference officers and other denominational leaders.

The statement cited scripture and Brethren heritage to address concern about "the terror and disorientation that many of our churches and communities are experiencing" and "the health of our common life together."

"At this writing, 21 members of the Church of the Brethren have been detained or deported," it said, in part. "People in the United States are losing their lives in detention and in public, at the hands of the authorities. We write now to members of the Church to remind all of us: In the face of brutal immigration enforcement, misinformation, and political violence, 'God did not give us a spirit of timidity but one of power, love, and self-discipline' (2 Timothy 1:7, ISV)... When the military is asked to serve as a police force, when trusted institutions become politicized, when the integrity of elections is questioned or attacked, and when misinformation flows from official voices, we sense patterns that trouble the spirit and strain the fabric of our lives together as a country."

Founa Badet (at microphone), director of Intercultural Ministries was among leaders of a press conference and prayer service calling for the extension of TPS for Haitians.

District executives make intercultural connections

The Council of District Executives held winter meetings on Jan. 28-Feb. 1 in Miami, Fla., combining business sessions with intercultural continuing education that connected with local congregations.

CODE and several agency representatives spent time at Miami Haitian Church of the Brethren and other area congregations (Miami First, Tabernacle of the Restoration, and Unify Christian). The time included a conversation with Intercultural Ministries director Founa Badet and Deportation Defense Response staff Vildor Archange, Bible studies on Acts 2 shared through the lenses of different cultures and languages, and attendance at the Atlantic Southeast Multicultural Festival.

In their business sessions, CODE received various reports from Annual Conference and its agencies, the Deportation Defense Response Team, and the Annual Conference Review and Evaluation Committee, among others. The group held conversations with the Ministry Advisory Council on possible updates to the 2014 Ministerial Leadership paper and with the Pastoral Compensation and Benefits Advisory Committee on potential revisions to denominational sabbath renewal guidelines. Bethany Seminary president Jeff Carter led a combined session with the Inter-Agency Forum on "Creating a Culture of Calling." Another combined session with IAF explored the "New Table" process being developed by CODE and the Annual Conference agencies.

Prayers were raised for the impending end of Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for Haitian immigrants, a move that was later stayed by a federal judge.

While in Florida, district executives and other denominational leaders joined in Atlantic Southeast District's first Multicultural Festival.

Church joins amici curiae brief in Supreme Court

On Feb. 17, the Church of the Brethren joined 30 other faith organizations in an amici curiae brief in the Supreme Court in support of the plaintiffs in Noem v. Al Otro Lado, No. 25-5. The case challenges the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) authority to prevent individuals from filing for asylum at ports of entry into the US.

Plaintiffs challenged a DHS interpretation of 8 U.S.C 1158(a)(1) that states that “[a]ny alien who is physically present in the United States or who arrives in the United States... may apply for asylum.” DHS has interpreted the language “arrives in the United States” to mean that the individual must step across the border. Under that interpretation, an individual stopped right at the border is not eligible to apply for asylum.
