Scriptural Message

For you created my inmost being;
you knit me together in my mother's womb. I praise you because I am fearfully and wonderfully made

Psalm 139:13-14

Listen, my son, to your father's instruction and do not forsake your mother's teaching. They are a garland to grace your head and a chain to adorn your neck.

Proverbs 1:8-9

Love is patient and kind; love does not envy or boast; it is not arrogant or rude. It does not insist on its own way; it is not irritable or resentful; it does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but rejoices with the truth. Love bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.

Ministry through Faith, Vision, and Action

John 15:5 (NIV) — “I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing.”

May is one of those months where you don't have to convince anybody that growth is happening—you can see it everywhere. Trees are full again, grass won't stop growing, and gardens are going in. Life is showing up all around us.

And right in the middle of that picture, Jesus gives us something simple, but something we forget pretty easily:

Stay connected to Me.

A branch doesn't wake up and decide, “Today I'm going to try really hard to produce fruit.” It doesn't force it or stress over it. It just stays connected to the vine—and the life of the vine does the rest.

Sometimes we try to do it our way.

- “I've just got to do better this week.”
- “I need to be more patient, more consistent.”
- “If I try harder, I'll finally get there.”

Effort matters—but Jesus never said fruit comes from effort alone. He said it comes from remaining in Him.

What It Means to “Remain”

Stay close. Stay connected. Don't drift too far for too long.

- Spending time in God's Word, even in the middle of a busy day
- Talking to the Lord throughout your day
- Turning your heart back to Him when you feel yourself drifting
- Bringing real life to Him—your stress, your family, your work

John 15:8 (NIV) — “This is to my Father's glory, that you bear much fruit, showing yourselves to be my disciples.”

You Can't Fake Fruit

You can hold things together for a while on your own. But eventually, if you're not connected, it shows.

Galatians 5:22–23 (NIV) — “But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, forbearance, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.”

Psalm 1:3 (NIV) — “That person is like a tree planted by streams of water, which yields its fruit in season...”

A Simple Challenge for May

- Start your day with Him
- Talk with Him throughout your day
- Turn back to Him when you feel distant

Stay connected to Jesus—and trust Him to grow what needs to grow.

Question to Carry This Month, Am I trying to produce something on my own... or am I staying connected to the One, who produces it?

A MOTHER'S Love

There's no love like a mother's,
Her heart is filled with care.
With Christ as her example,
Her Savior's love she'll share.

A mother's love is endless,
Not changing for all time.
When needed by her children,
A mother's love will shine.

God bless these special mothers,
God bless them every one.
For all their tears and heartaches,
And special work they've done.

When days on earth are over,
A mother's love lives on,
Through many generations,
God's blessings on each one.

Be thankful for our mothers,
Who love with higher love,
From power God has given,
And strength from up above.

IAF statement calls on 'Spirit of Power and Love'

The Inter-Agency Forum meeting in Florida on Jan. 27 issued the statement "A Spirit of Power and Love" on immigration enforcement and political violence and their effects on church members. The IAF includes the Annual Conference officers and other denominational leaders.

The statement cited scripture and Brethren heritage to address concern about "the terror and disorientation that many of our churches and communities are experiencing" and "the health of our common life together."

"At this writing, 21 members of the Church of the Brethren have been detained or deported," it said, in part. "People in the United States are losing their lives in detention and in public, at the hands of the authorities. We write now to members of the Church to remind all of us: In the face of brutal immigration enforcement, misinformation, and political violence, 'God did not give us a spirit of timidity but one of power, love, and self-discipline' (2 Timothy 1:7, ISV)... When the military is asked to serve as a police force, when trusted institutions become politicized, when the integrity of elections is questioned or attacked, and when misinformation flows from official voices, we sense patterns that trouble the spirit and strain the fabric of our lives together as a country."

Founa Badet (at microphone), director of Intercultural Ministries was among leaders of a press conference and prayer service calling for the extension of TPS for Haitians.

District executives make intercultural connections

The Council of District Executives held winter meetings on Jan. 28-Feb. 1 in Miami, Fla., combining business sessions with intercultural continuing education that connected with local congregations.

CODE and several agency representatives spent time at Miami Haitian Church of the Brethren and other area congregations (Miami First, Tabernacle of the Restoration, and Unify Christian). The time included a conversation with Intercultural Ministries director Founa Badet and Deportation Defense Response staff Vildor Archange, Bible studies on Acts 2 shared through the lenses of different cultures and languages, and attendance at the Atlantic Southeast Multicultural Festival.

In their business sessions, CODE received various reports from Annual Conference and its agencies, the Deportation Defense Response Team, and the Annual Conference Review and Evaluation Committee, among others. The group held conversations with the Ministry Advisory Council on possible updates to the 2014 Ministerial Leadership paper and with the Pastoral Compensation and Benefits Advisory Committee on potential revisions to denominational sabbath renewal guidelines. Bethany Seminary president Jeff Carter led a combined session with the Inter-Agency Forum on "Creating a Culture of Calling." Another combined session with IAF explored the "New Table" process being developed by CODE and the Annual Conference agencies.

Prayers were raised for the impending end of Temporary Protected Status (TPS) for Haitian immigrants, a move that was later stayed by a federal judge.

While in Florida, district executives and other denominational leaders joined in Atlantic Southeast District's first Multicultural Festival.

Church joins amici curiae brief in Supreme Court

On Feb. 17, the Church of the Brethren joined 30 other faith organizations in an amici curiae brief in the Supreme Court in support of the plaintiffs in Noem v. Al Otro Lado, No. 25-5. The case challenges the Department of Homeland Security (DHS) authority to prevent individuals from filing for asylum at ports of entry into the US.

Plaintiffs challenged a DHS interpretation of 8 U.S.C 1158(a)(1) that states that “[a]ny alien who is physically present in the United States or who arrives in the United States...may apply for asylum.” DHS has interpreted the language “arrives in the United States” to mean that the individual must step across the border. Under that interpretation, an individual stopped right at the border is not eligible to apply for asylum.
