Scriptural Message

22 While they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take it; this is my body."

23 Then he took a cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

24 "This is my blood of the[a] covenant, which is poured out for many," he said to them. 25 "Truly I tell you, I will not drink again from the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

26 When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

Octopber 2026 — Ministry through Faith, Vision, and Action

Greetings from Pastor Chris

"Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ." Romans 5:1 (NIV)

October is here! The mornings are getting cooler, the days are getting shorter, and we begin to see the beautiful colors of fall around us. As we move from September into a new season, it's a good reminder that change is a normal part of life.

The leaves change. The weather changes. Our schedules change. And our lives change too.

Some changes are exciting, while others can be difficult. There are times when we wonder what the next season of life will bring. That's why I appreciate our verse for this month. Paul reminds us that through faith in Jesus Christ, we have peace with God.

Notice that Paul doesn't say life will always be easy. He doesn't promise that we won't face problems, disappointments, sickness, or uncertainty. Instead, he reminds us that no matter what is happening around us, we can have peace because of what Jesus has already done for us.

As we watch the leaves fall this month, perhaps it is a good reminder that there are things we need to let go of as well. Maybe it's worry, fear, guilt, or simply our desire to have everything figured out.

We don't have to carry it all ourselves. Jesus invites us to trust Him.

The seasons change, but God doesn't. His love doesn't change. His promises don't change. And because of Jesus, we can face whatever this next season brings—not because we know what tomorrow holds, but because we know who holds tomorrow.

As your pastor, my prayer for our church family this October is that we would experience that peace in a real and personal way. Whatever you may be carrying right now—whether it's something happening in your family, at work, with your health, or simply something weighing on your heart—remember that you don't have to walk through it alone. God is with you, and your hope is in Jesus.

Let's continue to encourage one another, pray for one another, and look for opportunities to be the hands and feet of Jesus in our community. There are people all around us who need to know that there is hope, forgiveness, and peace found in Christ.

Myerstown Church of the Brethren, let's keep our eyes on Jesus and keep moving forward together. The leaves will change, the seasons will come and go, and life will bring its share of challenges—but our God remains faithful.

Thank you for being a church family that cares, serves, prays, and seeks to follow Christ. It is a privilege to serve as your pastor, and I am thankful for each one of you.

Pastor's Report

Since our last meeting, I have been on vacation from July 28 through August 28. I am thankful for the opportunity to have some time away, but I am also thankful to be back and serving with the Myerstown Church family.
Since returning, some of the things I have been involved with include:

- Helping plan worship services and filling in as worship leader for Rally Day on August 30.
- Taking part in the Blessing of the Backpacks and praying for our students, teachers, Sunday school teachers, and the new school year.
- Presenting Bibles to the children and encouraging them in their walk with Christ.
- Continuing our journey through the Gospel of Matthew in Sunday worship.

- Continuing the Tuesday morning Bible Study as we work through the book of Acts using material from Dr. David Jeremiah.
- Meeting with a fellow pastor for fellowship and encouragement.
- Visiting people in the hospital and making phone calls to check in and encourage members of our church family.
- Attending the youth church retreat. I really enjoyed spending time with our young people and getting to know them even more. I am thankful for the opportunity to build those relationships and see God working in their lives.
- Preparing the church newsletter articles and verse of the month.
- Helping coordinate funeral services and making preparations for services that took place during my absence.

I am thankful for everyone who helped keep things moving while I was away. Ministry is never something one person does alone, and I appreciate the many people who faithfully serve and help make our church family what it is.

As we continue into the fall, my prayer is that we will keep our eyes on Christ, continue growing in His Word, and look for opportunities to reach out and encourage the people God has placed around us.

Mission and Ministry Board considers future of General Offices

The Mission and Ministry Board of the Church of the Brethren on June 17 approved a Statement of Intent regarding the future of the General Offices in Elgin, Ill., which is the denomination's headquarters.

According to the statement, "the board is exploring options for relocation of the denominational headquarters and will be pursuing the responsible sale of the current headquarters property."

The decision follows years of discussion about the changes affecting the Church of the Brethren, how best to carry out the ministry of the denomination, and what responsible stewardship requires.

Board chair Kathy Mack presided at the Zoom meeting; the statement was approved with one abstention.

The timing of the June 17 decision was intentional to disseminate the information before Annual Conference and give Conferencegoers the ability to bring informed questions, suggestions, and dreams to the event, according to board leadership.

Consideration of details related to the sale of property or relocation of headquarters and staff has not yet begun. There will be no immediate changes to staff roles, jobs, or locations. The process that has been put in motion with the Statement of Intent is expected to take a significant amount of time.

Pacific Northwest members face evacuations

"Please join us in praying for our brothers and sisters in the Pacific Northwest District," stated an Aug. 3 Facebook post. Fast-moving wildfires forced evacuations across Okanogan County, Wash. Members of the Whitestone and Ellisforde Churches of the Brethren, along with their neighbors, were ordered to leave their homes as firefighters worked to contain the fires.

Catholic Medical Mission Board begins renting space at Brethren Service Center

The Catholic Medical Mission Board (CMMB) has begun renting warehouse space at the Brethren Service Center in New Windsor, Md., in an area formerly occupied by the Church of the Brethren's Material Resources program.

"We are very excited to welcome CMMB to the Brethren Service Center. They have provided opportunities for some of our former Material Resources staff," said Shawn Flory Replogle, executive director of Organizational Resources for the Church of the Brethren. He added that the presence of CMMB brings the Brethren Service Center to full occupancy, helping ensure its long-term sustainability.

"CMMB was searching for a new home for our Access to Medicines distribution program and couldn't be more pleased to partner with the Church of the Brethren to extend our mission," said Mary Beth Powers, CMMB president and CEO.

CMMB is a faith-based nonprofit that works with local partners to strengthen healthcare systems and expand access to medicines and medical supplies in underserved communities around the world. Through its Access to Medicines Program, the organization has distributed more than $6.3 billion in donated medicines and medical supplies to 114 countries over the past 25 years.

South Sudan pastors ordained for Church of the Brethren ministry

A growing Church of the Brethren congregation in the Mangateen Internally Displaced Persons (IDP) camp in South Sudan celebrated the ordination of two pastors in June: Daniel Mawer and Paul Makuar.

Mawer and Matthew Gatluak helped establish the congregation after being displaced from their home area of Unity State. Although neither reside in the camp, their wives and children remain in a refugee camp in Gulu, Uganda.

Daniel Mawer Gatpan and Paul Makuar Gatduel.

Pastor and bishop Expert Bukene, together with Felicien Nkunzimana, district executive of the Church of the Brethren in Burundi, led training for pastors and evangelists in Juba before the ordinations. Gatluak returned to Mayom, Unity State, to be with his mother during her final illness and was therefore unable to participate in the ordination.

Mawer and Gatluak plan to continue leading the Mangateen congregation, while Makuar will begin a new church in Amadi, outside Juba.

Athanasus Ungang, Church of the Brethren Global Mission country director for South Sudan, reported that the Mangateen congregation began last year with about 50 worshipers meeting in a community center and has since grown to about 240. While the congregation hopes to build a church, resources remain limited, and like many pastors in the region, Mawer and Gatluak also plan to learn vocational skills to support themselves while continuing their ministry.

Remembrance: Suely Zanetti Inhauser

Suely Zanetti Inhauser, 75, died on July 22 after living for several years with a progressive motor neuron disease. With her husband, Marcos Inhauser, she was a longtime leader of Igreja da Irmandade (the Church of the Brethren in Brazil).

Both studied at Bethany Theological Seminary, where Suely earned a Master of Arts in theology. She served as assistant pastor of a Church of the Brethren congregation in Michigan, where she was ordained to the pastoral ministry. After returning to Brazil, she pastored the Mennonite Church in Campinas from 1993 to 2003. In 2000, the Inhausers launched a church-planting effort and later served through Global Mission as national co-directors and then co-coordinators for Brazil. In 2013, Suely preached at the Church of the Brethren Annual Conference.

In more recent years, after her diagnosis, "more than 600 people... came to visit her and tell her how significant her life and ministry was," her family wrote in a remembrance shared on Facebook. "Couples testified to her that they remained married because of her teachings and therapy. God gave her the opportunity to hear these testimonies firsthand two years after the diagnosis." She is survived by her husband of 52 years, three children, and grandchildren.

Personnel

Jeff Thomson began June 22 as director of Brethren Disaster Ministries. Thomson brings extensive disaster response experience, having deployed to more than 20 disaster sites, often in leadership roles. His professional background includes work in cabinet making and the hospitality industry. He will work remotely from his home in Kansas, where he attends a Baptist church.

Mark Watson resigned as Client Services manager for Eder Financial.
